STATE STORM

Warning Sent to All the Shipping Men.

Livermore Train Tied Up in the Niles Canyon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—A severe storm over the Central and Northern California. The pressure at Sacramento is 29.52 inches. Red Bluff 29.55 and San Francisco 29.41. Very high southern winds are reported in California north of the Tehachas.

Reports are missing from all stations outside of California and Arizona.

The following heavy rainfalls are reported:

Red Bluff, 1.75 inch. Sacramento, 1.20. San Francisco, 1.20. San Luis Obispo, 1.00. Fresno, 1.00 and Los Angeles 0.75.

The following maximum wind velocities are reported: Sacramento, 15 miles per hour from the southwest. San Francisco, 45 from the south and San Luis Obispo 45 from the south.

Southwest storm warnings are displayed along the coast of California north of Point Conception, and advisory messages have been sent to Los Angeles and San Diego warning shipping and railroad interests of heavy rains and high southern winds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Reports from different sections of the State show that the storm of last night centralized in the section of California from San Francisco and Sacramento south to Fresno.

The storm was probably heaviest in the northern section of the Sacramento valley, where the wind reached a velocity of forty-five miles an hour, accompanied by a heavy rain. In this city the wind blew at the rate of forty-two miles an hour, but at Point Lobos the velocity recorded by the Merchants' Exchange was seventy miles, and at this point the instruments of the Exchange looked were blown down, preventing further observations of the velocity. Forecast Office at San Francisco issued warnings to shipping men and orchardists and farmers all over the State, and it is expected that little damage will have resulted from the storm. The rivers at all points are high owing to the rain, but no news of floods has been received.

AT SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 21.—The local conditions are all that could be desired for a continuation of the present rain storm. A strong wind is blowing directly from the south and the barometer is unusually low. Since the rain set in on Tuesday the crops at Cucamonga reservoir have registered a half inch and a half inches at 10 o'clock this morning and it was still raining.

The mountain streams are running and already thirteen feet of water has been impounded in the Cucamonga dam and an equal amount in the Sweetwater and Lower Ojai reservoirs. The drainage areas of all the water sheds in this county have been thoroughly soaked, and from now on a very large percentage of the rain that falls will run into these reservoirs.

THE LOS ANGELES RECORD

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—The United States Department of Agriculture crop bulletin for Southern California for the week ending November 19th is as follows:

The long-continued drought was broken on the 19th by a general rain which has since then kept up at intervals. The precipitation was well distributed, generous in amount and comes at a most opportune time. It will put the ground in good condition for plowing and seeding, which will be rushed as soon as the rain ceases. Feed, which was getting scarce, will be improved and early sown grain benefited. Some unbacked hay lying in the fields was injured.

STORM AT STOCKTON

STOCKTON, Cal., Nov. 21.—After a furious rain and wind storm which prevailed throughout the night the rain ceased shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, but there is every indication that the storm is not over.

The channels and waterways are beginning to fill up but there is not the least apprehension of a flood this evening, as the recent straits of the San Joaquin River is expected to result in the carrying off of the water too rapidly to allow it to back up and cause an overflow. The wind was so heavy last night that plate glass windows were blown in trees blown over and other damage inflicted about town.

FROM NILES

NILES, Cal., Nov. 21.—The heavy downpour of rain which began Thursday night is beginning to interfere with railroad traffic. This morning's Livermore train was delayed in the canyon an hour and thirty minutes, a big boulder having slid down on the track, necessitating breaking it up before removal and disarranging regular schedule. Rainfall for twenty-four hours up to 1 A. M. was 1.75 inches making 5.14 inches for the storm and 6.55 for the season, compared to 6.19 for the same date last year. Alameda Creek is forming bank full, carrying a large amount of debris. The high water mark will be reached before night. It is still raining heavily.

AT WILLOWS

WILLOWS, Cal., Nov. 21.—Rain fell in torrents here last night, accompanied by high wind. Fall during night was three inches. It was a welcome downpour and farmers are pleased. Clearing today.

THE REFUNDING.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular under today's date suspending refunding operations to take effect December 1, 1900.

SMALL CYCLONE STRUCK THE CITY THIS MORNING.

Trees and Fences Down—Damage to Bacon Building—Bay City Has Trouble.

Astronomer Buckhalter of Chabot Observatory today supplied the following interesting wind record:

January 1, 1873 wind blew 40 miles an hour in this city

January 10, 1879, wind blew 41 miles an hour

November 21, 1899 between the hours of 12:25 and 1:20 A. M., the wind blew 49 miles an hour in this city. This beats the record.

H. M. Sanborn, the florist, reports this afternoon that according to the 11 o'clock P. M. amount to 2.12 inches, making a total of 6.37 inches for the season, as against 1.01 inches at the same date last year.

On Nov. 20, the 21st of last year there was a fall of 1.75 inches during the twenty-four hours.

King storm visited Oakland again last night and played havoc with trees, fences, electric and telephone wires and according to H. M. Sanborn the florist, the downpour since 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon up to 7 o'clock this morning amounted to exactly two inches, bringing the total rain fall for the season within a few inches of the total of last season at the same date.

The storm was the second of this year, and the greatest since the previous year. It was a steady rain, but with a heavy wind, which came down about 10 o'clock last night, when it seemed as though old Phil had suddenly broken open the flood gates of the firmament and the rain fell in torrents, accompanied by a wind that soon increased in velocity until considerable damage had been done in various sections of this city.

STREET LIGHTS DESERTED

The streets were deserted, and the electric light system was in a state of confusion. The falling sound of falling trees and the crashing of falling wires, and the sound of the falling of houses was the only sound of comfort for those who hid themselves out of the rain to their homes.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS OUT

Shortly after 10 o'clock the incandescent electric light system had to be cut off, owing to the breaking down of wires, and when gas was not also at hand, candles and lamps had to be brought into commission. The electric light system was maintained only a little longer when this circuit was cut off by the breaking of the wires in the West Oakland and the suburbs, leaving these sections in total darkness.

ELECTRIC CARS DELAYED

It was useless to make any effort at running the electric cars on time after 10 o'clock, and as for the local trains they likewise were all behind their time, owing chiefly to the raining storm on the bay. Old timers declared that they have never before rolled so high.

LAST TRIP ON BAY

The Bay City's last trip from San Francisco was one that will long remain fresh in the memory of those who were passengers. As the steamship made for the slip at the Narrows, the side piling and tore away several places, and those passengers who managed to land and reach the pier received a double dose of the rain. The ship was then shut up from the bay over the trestle and against the cars and through the ventilators of the coaches, flooding the floors.

High up along the Narrows, the electric and along the uncovered section of the wharf, the waves first drifted wood which caused several steps of the train on route for this city and Alameda.

While all kinds of attempts were made to land passengers from the Bay City, one old couple, whose names could not be learned, made one desperate struggle to get ashore, when they were violently thrown to the deck and injured. They were finally carried off the ferry steamer and placed aboard.

KRUGER REDUCE THE TAX

He Will Be Given Revenue Will Be Cut Down Large Sum Each Year.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 21.—In spite of the heavy rain which prevailed all night and during the forenoon today the streets of Marseilles were filled from an early hour by great crowds intent on extending welcome to President Kruger, President of the South African Republic.

At 11:30 A. M. the steamer Gelderland, carrying the noted voyager, not having been sighted, the committee announced an adjournment until 2 P. M.

At 2 P. M. the Dutch cruiser Gelderland is reported to be off Toulon and cannot arrive here before 8 o'clock this evening. The reception of Kruger is likely to be postponed until tomorrow.

SNOW'S CASE.

Mayor Puts in His Defense to the Charges.

City Loses the Suit By Statute of Limitations.

When the trial of the city's suit against Mayor Snow was resumed today before Judge Hall the defendant was recalled to the witness stand by Attorney Coogan. The Mayor was called upon to identify a statement of personal property taxes paid into the treasury during his term of office as City Assessor.

In order to save time Attorney Coogan wanted City Attorney Dow to agree to a statement of facts to the effect that Snow was City Assessor from April 1, 1899, to April 5, 1900, during which he collected personal taxes amounting to a sum in the aggregate of $100,000, that he paid the different sums in full into the treasury until February 1, 1899, after which time he deducted 6 per cent commission on personal property collections, both prior to and subsequent to the date mentioned.

Without waiting a right to object to the matter as being irrelevant, Dow agreed to the statement.

Then Coogan wanted to stipulate that from February 1, 1899, to November 5, 1899, Snow had collected for personal property taxes the sum of $15,329, that he paid $9,088 into the city treasury, and that the difference withheld represents 6 per cent of the sum total collected by him during his term as City Assessor from April 1, 1899, to November 5, 1899.

Dow would not agree to the statement.

The court then allowed the witness Snow to make a statement to the effect, basing his assertions on the summary taken from the books of his office and those of the City Treasury. Dow strenuously objected to the line of evidence but Judge Hall ruled against him, stating that all the city's attorney was a compelling was to delay the progress of the case and encumber the records.

The summary was finally introduced as evidence.

On cross-examination City Attorney Dow scored a point. The Mayor testified that the first deductions were made November 2, 1899, prior to the letter of December 3, 1899, notifying the Council that he intended to retain commissions and set up in his answer as evidence that he first notified the Council and then made the collections.

Dow wanted to know if the Mayor had examined his answer before he signed it.

Coogan objected to the attorney interjecting speeches into his examination of the witness.

"If you want to do that, Mr. Dow, go hire a hall," said Coogan, and Dow subsided.

The defendant then rested and the city announced that it had nothing in rebuttal.

Dow wanted to have the case of the city against Snow and the Fidelity & Casualty Company decided before the matter was had in either matter. He said he was not ready to argue the matter and desired to submit it on briefs.

Attorney Coogan insisted upon oral argument and the court ruled in his favor.

The trial of the second case was set for December 22nd.

When the City Attorney started to proceed with his discussion of the case he drew a typewritten document from his pocket and read his argument.

He argued that the provisions of the charter did not permit the Assessor to retain the 6 per cent commission as the compensation of all city officials is specifically fixed and that section 42 explicitly states that only the City Engineer is entitled to fees for his services.

Attorney Dow completed the reading of his argument shortly after the court recessed after the noon recess.

He was followed by T. C. Coogan who read a section from the charter providing that no officer should receive any salary or compensation excepting that provided by law, and the charter.

"The whole case hinges on the interpretation of that clause," said Mr. Coogan. "The other side wants to lose sight of the words 'by law'."

"Now, where must we look for that law? Why, in the statute, of course."

The case must go in favor of Snow on the statute of limitations. Snow is trying to justify his action.

JUDGE HENSHAW TELLS HIS STORY ON THE STAND.

Philbrook Asks Insulting Questions and is Promptly Rebuked By the Court.

The case of Attorney Philbrook to be appointed guardian of James P. Merritt was resumed this morning in Judge Greene's court, Judge Sawyer of Redding presiding. The complainant was accompanied by his wife, Mr. Merritt was represented by Attorneys Bosley and H. M. Fitzgerald.

The first witness called was Judge F. W. Henshaw of the Superior Court. He was asked if he is an attorney and said that he is. He was admitted to practice about the year 1883.

"What position do you hold in connection with the Union Bank of Savings?"

"As far as I know, I am a director of the bank. I have not attended a meeting of the directors for a year. If my name has not been filled by some other person, I am a director still, so far as I know."

"Have you any knowledge of any change?"

"None at all."

The justice then went on to tell of the positions he had held in this city and county as a judicial officer, and of the connection of his family and relatives as stockholders in the Union Savings Bank. He stated that he had ten shares of stock in the bank. In 1891 he had resigned from the Superior Bench because of his having been elected a member of the Supreme Bench.

"What position does your brother hold in the Union Savings Bank?"

"He is president."

"When was he elected?"

"He was elected after the death of

Scores of Lives Lost in a Southern Cyclone.

In a Tennessee Town Forty Persons are Killed.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 21.—A special to the Associated Press by long distance telephone from Columbia, Tenn., says:

"A terrific cyclone, moving in a westerly and north-westerly direction, struck this place at 3 o'clock last night and left havoc in its path. The northern and western portions of the city, which is populated principally by negroes, was almost entirely swept away."

News was received by telephone from Columbia, Tenn., today that forty persons were killed in last night's tornado.

NEIGHBORS SUFFER WORST

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21.—A special to the Press-Dispatch from Nashville, Tenn., says:

"The killed in Columbia number fifteen white and twenty-two colored. The track of the storm was through Macedonia, a negro suburb. The main portion of the city was not struck."

OTHER HORRORS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 21.—A tornado bounding through a narrow stretch of territory extending from a point three miles north of La Grange, to Lagrange, Tenn., caused a heavy loss of life and property yesterday afternoon. The storm completely interrupted telegraphic and telephone communication that neither the origin or the ending of it can be determined tonight, nor can the extent of the disaster be learned. From meager details obtainable, covering only the points named, it appears that nineteen lives were lost and the destruction of property was also heavy. It is believed that in the cyclone's path between the towns heard from numerous farm houses and interior communities of more or less considerable population were struck, and these being cut off from the outside world were unable to give notice of their distress. Accompanying the tornado was a rain storm of terrific proportions.

The dead at Lagrange so far as known follows:

WALTER J. MOODY, assistant manager of the Panky & Galloway Flour Manufacturing Co.

Wife of Brown May, colored.

Negro woman, unknown.

HAWAII ELECTION DRIVER KILLED.

Why the Republican Party Was Beaten Out. His Team Was Blown Over an Embankment.

HONOLULU, Nov. 21.—A special to the Tribune from San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Practically complete election returns from all the islands show that Robert Wilcox is safely elected Delegate to Congress, having a majority of 25 for the term of the fifty-seventh Congress, and 25 for the fifty-eighth Congress, an unopposed term. The returns also show the native vote for Wilcox as a protest against annexation. The administration papers point to a long period of more or less strong feeling against whites among the natives and declare that the number of Hawaiians who voted with whites as members of either the Republican or Democratic party was more than was to have been expected.

The appointment of Dole as Governor is referred to by some of the papers as a reason why the natives refused to affiliate with the Republican party. It is claimed that in appointing Dole Governor and Cooper secretary of the Territory President McKinley made the Republican party sponsor for all the acts of the Independent government during the days of the Republic of Hawaii, some of which acts were unpopular with the natives.

equal parties, A. Chabot taking a block of them. "Did you charge the money paid out as dividends to the construction or operating expense?" asked Hayne. The absurdity of this question is shown by the fact that the amount paid out as dividends is only a little less than the combined charges for construction and operating expense. Mr. Watkinson said the disbursement was charged to dividend account, interest and dividend account being separately kept. DIVIDENDS PRIOR TO 1886. "Did you tell the Governor if he would appoint Patrick you would resign?" "Oh no."

"Did you and Nussbaumer have anything to do with the appointment of Patrick?" "I think they favored his candidacy because, I believe, they were close friends."

"Did you at all favor giving the vacant judgeship to George W. Hedges?" "He had been a candidate I would have been pleased to recommend him instead of Mr. Patrick."

"Were you under any obligations as support Mr. Hedges, or Mr. Nussbaumer or Mr. Patrick?" "No, I was under no obligation to them."

"What assistance was rendered by you was it before the convention or before the people?" "Both."

"What relationship existed between Patrick and Nussbaumer?" "None that I know of save that of friendship."

"Do you know that there were deals in the knowledge trust which it was decided to sell?" "I never heard of any deals of the knowledge trust in that connection until I heard of them in the court. I think it was when you were examining Mr. Merritt last Monday morning. That was the first I knew of it."

"When the Margaret Merritt case was up August last did you know any such disposition to be made of documents?" "If you now that the first I heard of anything of that kind was during the last forty-eight hours."

"Do you know that the Union Savings Bank contemplated forcing out those deeds?" "I told you once before that I know nothing about it or the knowledge trust, or any deeds covered by it. I know nothing of deeds or mortgages, and in fact I know nothing about it."

"Do you know of a suit to break the knowledge trust?" "Never heard of such a suit until I saw it published in the papers."

"Were you consulted as to the progress of the action?" "I told you I never knew anything about it."

"Did you ever talk to anyone on the subject?" "Don't recollect that I ever did."

"Did you about that time meet Mr. Nussbaumer?" "I met him two or three times. I think at one time he came to my house at night. That is the only recollection I have of the time."

"What do you mean—the Margaret Merritt case?" "Yes."

"I asked him, as nearly as I can recall, when I would be called as a witness. Did he ever consult you about the testimony in the case?" "No, I know nothing about the case."

"What are your relations to A. A. Moore?" "He was very cordial. I have known him for many years."

"Did you ever see him at the time of the proceedings?" "Yes, I did."

The wedding took place in the First Presbyterian Church. The church was handsomely decorated.

Miss Elsie Smyth was maid of honor and O. C. Bligham of San Jose was best man.

Rev. G. W. Evans performed the ceremony. After the ceremony there was a reception.

DEWEY WELL FILLED DESPITE THE STORM.

Despite the storm there was a good house at the Dewey last night, and "The Liberator" was heartily enjoyed by the staunch admirers of the Dewey production. The play is even better done than it was when it had such a successful run at this house a year ago. Landers Stevens plays the role of Bill Turner in his usual artistic manner, and De Witt Clinton does some very clever work as young Elson, who runs down his father's murder and brings him to justice. Grace Plaford as the Western girl, Peaches, is excellent. The other characters are in good hands.

Superior Roth expended $16 in his canvas for revolution. He filed his statement yesterday.

DID NOT LEAVE HIS JOB.

Could Hold Down Any Amount of Work When Properly Fed.

A young man clerk in a large store in Kansas City had a curious experience with food, as related to his health. He says: "About ten months ago a dizziness came upon me each morning, kept growing worse, and a headache would invariably come on in the afternoon, and after meals I would have vomiting spells which would leave me very weak; also there was a burning sensation in the locality of my heart, and many nights I have not slept a wink."

"A physician whom I consulted, told me to give up my position at once and go to some watering place for my health, for if I did not, it would only be a question of a short time until death would claim me. I did not feel able to give up my position, but my condition kept getting worse, and finally my skin turned to a sort of greenish color, appetite left and I was thoroughly discouraged."

"About this time our doctor, by mistake, sent up a package of Grape-Nuts, sort of a package of Grape-Nuts instead of some other food ordered. I thought I would try it, having no idea that it would in any way benefit my health, but the first day after using the food I noticed a decided change in my condition. My severe head did not appear as usual, and I began to have an appetite."

"I thought at first it was the effect of a medicine I was taking, but one of the family suggested that it might be Grape-Nuts, for Grape-Nuts had the reputation of being a great nerve-builder. In order to be sure, I quit taking any medicine whatever, but continued the use of Grape-Nuts."

"On the eighth day the dizziness entirely disappeared and the headaches were very slight. I felt almost like a new man, and in three weeks after I began using the food was entirely well, and am now in better health than I have ever been. My own case proves the truth of the claim that Grape-Nuts food is a great health and brain food." Wm. J. Woods, 1717 Holmes St., Kansas City, Mo.

People are gradually learning that health depends on food, and the proper selection of food, the more perfect the condition of health. Grape-Nuts food is the most scientifically made food in existence, and is perfectly cooked and ready for instant use.

MISS RICHARDSON WAS OVERCOME.

Nearly Asphyxiated in a Room in the Court House.

Miss Carrie Richardson, a stenographer in the office of the official court reporters, was nearly asphyxiated yesterday afternoon in one of the rooms of the court house.

Had it not been that the accident happened in an apartment used with more or less frequency by court reporters, one of whom discovered her plight, the result might have been fatal.

Miss Richardson was reclining on a couch in the room when she fell asleep. A small gas heating stove was burning in the place.

Plumbers had been summoned to repair some gas mains in the building. They went through the different rooms to shut off the lights before beginning operations, but overlooked the stove in the apartment where Miss Richardson was sleeping.

The supply was shut off and when the repairs had been completed the gas was turned on again.

It began to flow through the heating stove and rapidly filled the stenographer's room.

Miss Richardson was unconscious when the sound of escaping gas attracted the attention of one of the court reporters, who broke into the room. The prostrate young woman was carried into the open air and a physician summoned.

In a short time she was resuscitated and was able to go to her home without assistance.

THREE YEARS IN SAN QUENTIN PRISON.

George Butler, the colored lad found guilty of grand larceny, was sentenced by Judge Greene today to three years' imprisonment at San Quentin. Butler stole a $5 watch from a man named Murray at Emeryville.

NEARLY DROWNED IN THE GUTTER.

Officer Pardee Thought He Struck a Ghost.

But for the prompt action of Officer Pardee, the remains of John Jones, an Australian, aged 30 years, would today be gracing a marble slab at the Morgue.

Jones was nearly drowned in a gutter at Sixteenth and Wood streets, last night, and his discovery in the nick of time almost borders on the miraculous.

While patrolling his beat in West Oakland, through the drizzling rain, last night, Officer Pardee was horrified to see projecting from the muddy water of a flooded gutter, and in the clear rays of the electric light, a human face.

Doubting his eyes, the officer secured a stick and gently prodded the apparently floating human countenance, when he was still further horrified, until the cold chill ran down his back, at hearing a low grunt from the lips and suddenly there was a commotion in the water, and a man's form rolled over, and then lay still and dead.

Officer Pardee promptly waded in and lifted the man who seemed more dead than alive, carried him to the sidewalk, and handed him over to the police patrol, which arrived just as he was being lifted.

The wagon quickly headed for the Receiving Hospital, but on the journey up town, the man revived, while the cold flow from his mouth and clothing. He soon recovered.

STILL HUNTING FOOLISH WIDOWS

Sample of Letters Received By Chief of Police.

Incarceration in a felon's cell behind the cold, gray walls of the County Jail does not hinder Arthur Arlington carrying on his nefarious occupation of hunting unsuspecting widows.

Either through some matrimonial bureau or through his letters being surreptitiously carried from the jail by some female accomplice, and by her mailed, Arlington has succeeded in communicating with many widows throughout the country. This is apparent from unusually large mail the chief receives almost each day.

The mail received by Sheriff Rogers and his assistant deputies and jailers does not equal that left at the County Jail by the noted swindler, who many months ago was convicted for stealing a purse filled with gold belonging to Miss Minnie Smith whom he had promised to marry.

Arlington was sentenced to life imprisonment in San Quentin, but he appealed to the Supreme Court and is now awaiting a decision for a new trial.

The latest sample of Arlington's wrong doing is shown in a letter received by Chief of Police Hocking yesterday afternoon as follows:

"Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 15, 1900. 'To Chief of Police, Oakland, Cal.—Dear Sir: Can you give me any information in regard to Mrs. Arthur Arlington who has been in Oakland all summer, but for the past four weeks, I have not heard from him. He has been having a lawsuit and was arrested for contempt of court. The suit has been tried and submitted to the judge about four weeks ago, since then I have not heard from him, and I am very anxious to know what has become of him, as he was coming here just as soon as it was decided and we were to be married."

"I am very anxious about him, and did not know any other way to find out. If you will kindly inform me in regard to him and his character, you will confer a great favor on a lady of refinement and respectability."

"Yours respectfully, Mrs. —" Chief Hocking this morning answered the letter by informing the unsuspecting widow that it is true "that Arlington has been in Oakland all summer, and that he will probably be here all winter," and sent her brief extracts from the court records showing Arlington's arrest, conviction, and sentence.

WIFE SAYS SHE WAS INSULTED.

The case of the divorce suit of Frank George, Mary George, is being heard today. The husband charged his wife with desertion. They have been married since 1891, although Mrs. George still appears to be a mere child. The testimony showed that the match was opposed by Perera's father and sister. The young husband wanted to take his wife to live at his parents' home, but as her sister-in-law had snubbed her and insulted her she refused.

Perera then went to Honolulu, leaving his wife behind. When he returned he wanted to fix up a place in his father's blacksmith shop for them to reside in, but she consented, but the husband failed to fulfill his promise and told her that each would have to make a living. Now he charges that his wife deserted him.

The case is still on trial.

WILL CONTRIBUTE THEIR CUTICLE.

Steward Norbert and Warden Page of the Receiving Hospital, Deputy County Auditor J. J. Hamilton Jr., E. L. Johnston, Orin Mullin and Deputy County Clerk Charles Arnold have volunteered to have pieces of cuticle cut from their arms to be given on to a wound on the back of Mrs. Margaret O'Connell caused by the flesh being removed to graft on to her hand, which was burned at a laundry. The piece of flesh cut from the young woman's back was nearly eight inches in diameter. The operation was performed successfully at the Receiving Hospital.

Wants to Be Supported.

Rosie Carlin has filed a suit for maintenance against her husband, Patrick Carlin. The couple were married July 11, 1892. The wife claims she was deserted by Carlin about a year ago. She asks the Court to order him to pay her $25 a month. The defendant owns property in Berkeley valued at $2,000 which Mrs. Carlin asks that he be enjoined from selling.

Got Big Dividends.

The final account of the executors of the estate of the late E. J. Brickell was filed this afternoon. It shows receipts amounting to $99,725.33, and expenditures of $55,125.33. Among the receipts is an item exceeding $25,000 for dividends received from the Truckee Lumber Company.

BANQUET AT M. E. CHURCH.

Joaquin Miller Tells About the California Writers.

The annual meeting and collation of the New Era Club of the First Methodist Episcopal Church was held in the church parlors last evening. About eighty people sat down to the bountifully spread tables, the dinner being served by the Ladies Aid Society of the church. Dr. R. T. Stratton presided. The theme of the evening was "California Literature." Mrs. Carrie Froese presided, reading selections from the writings of F. Bret Harte, E. L. Rill and Juliet Wilbur Tompkins. She was twice recalled. Professor W. D. Armes gave an address on "The Place of California in Literature." It was a finished, scholarly and classic discussion of the subject and was received with rounds of applause.

Following a flute solo by Mr. John G. Huswell and a baritone solo and encore by Mr. James Madril, came the place de poetry of the evening an address by Joaquin Miller on "California Writers," followed by some readings from his own works. Mr. Miller was in his happiest vein. He alluded to the fact that Professor Armes and Miss Condit and himself had discovered "The Man with the Hoe," meaning Edwin Markham. He compared the early California writers to the Bible poets, saying that, like them, they found their way to this counterpart of Palestine through desert wastes and perils from hostile tribes that, like them, they had the inspiration of towering mountains and of a sea as blue and powerful as the Mediterranean; that here, as in Palestine, poetry took its coloring from the tawny hills and yellow plains; that, like the Bible writers, they used few words, and used those with the precision of a Winchester rifle. He paid a glowing tribute to the genius of Harte, Twain, Stoddard and Miss Coolbrith.

Following the literary exercises a social half-hour was delightfully spent. Mr. Miller was accompanied by his venerable mother, who is a member of "First Church," and by his daughter, Mrs. McCormick. As it was ladies' night a large number of ladies graced the occasion with their presence.

The following were elected officers of the club for the ensuing year: President, J. L. Seupham; vice-president, J. C. Hill; secretary, Edward R. Elanson, treasurer, C. Francis Kirkley; executive committee, J. W. Madril, L. G. Burpee, L. A. Spencer.

BERT SWAN IS POISONED.

Spider Bite May Cause Serious Results.

Deputy County Clerk Bert Swan is suffering from the effects of a spider bite, which his physicians fear may result seriously. He came in contact with the insect at a fire last Saturday night.

He felt a stinging sensation on the back of his head as though some one had pinched him with a pin. Putting his hand on the spot he crushed a small black spider. He gave no attention to the matter until yesterday morning, when he awoke to discover a swelling nearly as big as an egg where he had been stung.

The poison spread gradually through his scalp into his face and down through the cords of his neck.

He consulted Dr. Stratton at the Receiving Hospital, who did everything possible to check the spread of the poison and neutralize its effect.

The physician believes that it is possible Mr. Swan's skull bone may become affected.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. DOES NOT LIKE THE WAYS OF THE EMPEROR

Herr Richter Roasts the German Ruler—A Defense for His Majesty.

BERLIN, Nov. 21.—The debate in the Reichstag yesterday was followed by a crowded house, interest centering in Herr Richter's powerful speech and the Imperial Chancellor's reply. Both speakers were frequently applauded. Herr Richter's caustic wit was more than offset by Count von Bülow's delicate raillery and biting irony. Herr Richter passed in review the incidents of the last six months, blamed Emperor William for the "no pardon" speech and expressed regret at finding it necessary to criticize the Kaiser, and his deeper regret at the cause. The present monarch, he said, was more inclined than his predecessors to speaking his mind in political affairs without first consulting his responsible Ministers. His majesty's luncheon speeches often showed a profusion of imagination. "In my judgment," he continued, "the letters from soldiers in China such as we have read and heard read would not have been written if the 'no pardon' speech had not preceded them.

CUBANS FIT TO GOVERN THEMSELVES

Secretary Root Calls Them an Enlightened People. Expects Soon to See the Republic in Operation.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Nov. 21.—Secretary Root and General Wood with the members of their party took a train to Delmont yesterday and returned to this city on horseback following the route of the army in the summer of 1898. General Wood acted as guide and showed the points of special interest on the various battlefields, explaining the strategy used by the American commanders.

SPEAKER ANDERSON DROPS INTO TOWN.

Speaker Alden Anderson was in Oakland yesterday afternoon. He is a candidate for re-election as Speaker, and came here to consult the Assemblymen in this district. It is said that four of the Assemblymen in this county are for him while Messrs. Kelley and McWade will not give any promise.

TRAINMEN HAVE SETTLED ALL THEIR TROUBLE

Southern Pacific Makes Agreement With the Leaders. Switchmen Not Satisfied With Showing Made.

The conference between the Greivance Committee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Southern Pacific officials regarding the new schedule is at an end and the differences between the employees and employers are settled, says the Examiner.

SAN LEANDRO PEOPLE WANT A NEW RACE TRACK

Judge Rawson Makes an Application to the Trustees. Joaquin Avenue Wanted for a Speed Track.

SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 21.—The regular meeting of the trustees was held last Monday evening. Those present were: Trustees Cary, Quinn, Eber, Elitos and Galt. After the roll call and the reading of the minutes of the last meeting Trustee Eber said that as a partial examination had been made by the committee in reference to the improving of Castro street he would ask for further time. The request was granted. The committee then read its report in reference to Maund avenue. Trustee Galt said that he believed sewers should be laid before making any further time was granted so that the committee might make further investigation Judge Rawson, speaking for the general public, said quite a number of owners of good horses wished a speed track. He continued: "The owners of the animals promise to pay the cost of putting in order Joaquin avenue if it can be used by them as a speed track."

GERMAN LADIES HOLD BALL IN GERMANIA HALL

Proceeds Will Go to the Poor During the Winter. Big Banquet Held After the Dancing is Over.

Last night Germania Hall contained the merriest crowd of young people that has ever gathered within its much frequented precincts. The storm, a regular souther, was at its height when the time arrived to go to the diversion given in the shape of an annual ball by the German Ladies' Relief Society, but not a young couple was deterred thereby from taking part in the anticipated pleasures of the evening. As they had not previously been provided for, hacks, gurnies, cabs, and enclosed vehicles of the improvised order were pressed into service and when they made their appearance in a procession at the entrance to the hall, they created a hubbub and excitement scarcely second to that attending a big opera night at the Metropolitan.

UNITED STATES CUT LOOSE FROM THE POWERS.

Our Country Will Have to Play Lone Hand in China. Administration Will Not Take Any Hasty Action.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—According to the highest official authority, says a Herald special from Washington, events are hurrying the United States to a point where, in the interests of humanity and a satisfactory solution of the Chinese question, it must withdraw from the concert of nations. It is not intended by the Administration to be hasty in adopting such a course. Fair warning will be given to the powers, and if they still persist in a policy calculated to drive China to desperation the only thing left for the administration will be to enter into independent negotiations with the Imperial government.

CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST JUDGE EDGAR

Declaration in An Affidavit That He Consults With the Prosecutors.

The anti-saloon battle in Berkeley is raging today. Christopher Cole is on trial for selling liquor, before Justice Edgar and a jury. Mr. Cole was arrested Sunday morning. He was brought into court Monday morning and ordered to plead to the charge of selling liquor. Cole refused to plead. Judge Edgar then entered a plea of not guilty for the defendant. Cole was ordered to appear for trial last night at 7 o'clock. Attorney Chapman, Cliff and Frick appeared in court for the defense. Last evening eight jurors were secured and the case went on at 1 P. M. today. Cole filed an affidavit making serious charges against Justice Edgar in an effort to get a change of venue. In his affidavit he says: "Second—As this affidavit is informed and believed, said Robert Edgar, as said Justice of said town of Berkeley, has been consulted by members of an organization having for its object the enforcement of said ordinance mentioned ordinance and the conviction of said defendant and other persons for the violation of said ordinance with reference to the means to be employed to secure such convictions; and that, as this affidavit is informed and believed, said Robert Edgar, as Justice of said town of Berkeley, will be governed, influenced and controlled by the wishes of the aforesaid organization in his rulings, conduct and actions in the trial of this affidavit, in disregard of his judicial duty and of the law, and in violation of the oath of his office. That at all the times herein mentioned said law firm of Chapman & Cliff, and the said A. L. Frick, attorney at law, has maintained their respective law offices upon Broadway street, in the city of Oakland, county of Alameda, State of California, situate about four miles from the Town Hall in the town of Berkeley, in which said Justice's Court of said town of Berkeley is held, and that at all times in this affidavit mentioned was easily accessible to this affidavit had been permitted reasonable time to plead to said charge hereinbefore set forth. That said Justice's Court is easily accessible to said law offices of Chapman & Cliff and said A. L. Frick by electric cars."

COUNT SAYS THAT THE CZAR WANTS PEACE.

Cassini Asserts That Russia is All Right. Declares That His Country Does Not Want Chinese Soil.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Count Cassini, Russian Ambassador to the United States, is quoted in a Washington dispatch to the Herald as saying in an interview: "From the outset of the Chinese trouble Russia has been actuated by the single purpose to act in concert with the other powers to preserve the integrity of China. In pursuance of his policy for preserving international peace the Emperor adopted an attitude when the Chinese trouble began calculated to maintain harmony and to insure the preservation of the Chinese empire. His attitude is in harmony with Russia's interests. Russia is a big State. Her internal affairs require constant attention. The great enterprises she has under way demand unremitting care. She wants no addition to her territory and the only contingency which would force her to acquire it would be in the event that other powers took steps to partition China. An examination of Russia's policy will show how completely it is in accord with that of the United States. I am hopeful that a solution satisfactory to the powers and to China will be reached, but to achieve it all must pursue a disinterested policy and have as their aim the objects they announced they had in view when the trouble began."

MEETING HELD BY THE TRUSTEES.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 21.—At the meeting of the Board of Trustees it was ordered that the street railway company be required to provide guards for its wires at important crossings, in order to prevent accidents. A. M. Speck filed charges against the Poundmaster and demanded the removal of that official.

THIN PEOPLE.

Should try Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Loss of flesh means that your stomach is not working properly. The blood becomes impure and the result is indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, flatulency, inactive liver and weak kidneys. The cause lies in the stomach. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will reach it and cure it. Be sure to give it a trial. Our private revenue stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

WILL AVOID WORLWLY TOPICS THIS DAY.

The California Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary is conducting a "Quiet Day" today at the Church of the Advent, East Oakland. The participants are required to abstain from any unnecessary conversation during the day and to "devote their time entirely to spiritual and heavenly things, avoiding worldly topics."
